II. Basis for Jurisdiction

Federal courts are courts of limited jurisdiction (limited power). Generally, only two types of cases can be heard in federal court: cases involving a federal question and cases involving diversity of citizenship of the parties. Under 28 U.S.C. § 1331, a case arising under the United States Constitution or federal laws or treaties is a federal question case. Under 28 U.S.C. § 1332, a case in which a citizen of one State sues a citizen of another State or nation and the amount at stake is more than $75,000 is a diversity of citizenship case. In a diversity of citizenship case, no defendant may be a citizen of the same State as any plaintiff.

What is the basis for federal court jurisdiction? (check all that apply)

Federal question

Or is incorporated under the laws of (foreign nation) _____, and has its principal place of business in (name) United States.

(If more than one defendant is named in the complaint, attach an additional page providing the same information for each additional defendant.)

3. The Amount in Controversy

The amount in controversy—the amount the plaintiff claims the defendant owes or the amount at stake—is more than $75,000, not counting interest and costs of court, because (explain):

Dangers associated with monies earned from the use of plaintiff's business research, since 2005 (mass forms of espionage) and investments in make up line (trade infringement) and use of intimidation; harassment in telecommunal form (Wells v FCC)

III. Statement of Claim

Write a short and plain statement of the claim. Do not make legal arguments. State as briefly as possible the facts showing that each plaintiff is entitled to the damages or other relief sought. State how each defendant was involved and what each defendant did that caused the plaintiff harm or violated the plaintiff's rights, including the dates and places of that involvement or conduct. If more than one claim is asserted, number each claim and write a short and plain statement of each claim in a separate paragraph. Attach additional pages if needed.

Defendant Kylie Jenner & Kylie Cosmetics active participation in mass investment & sale of plaintiff's businesses (in research phase) which led to Forbes list; causing plaintiff defamation, slander, in libel form (L'Oréal commerece) personally attacking plaintiff for her "monetary worth" - (involuntary "servitude"); (def.) modification of communications proving attack led to plaintiff's harm from business sectors.

IV. Relief

State briefly and precisely what damages or other relief the plaintiff asks the court to order. Do not make legal arguments. Include any basis for claiming that the wrongs alleged are continuing at the present time. Include the amounts of any actual damages claimed for the acts alleged and the basis for these amounts. Include any punitive or exemplary damages claimed, the amounts, and the reasons you claim you are entitled to actual or punitive money damages.

Plaintiff seeks monetary relief in the amount of $12,000,000.00 to deter further case filings and to protect her safety due to money obtained from the mass marketing of her business research (to relieve the need for any further business ventures to be invested in and capitalized on by competition in her trade and further embarrassment associated with such investments in plaintiff's "research" and mass marketing thereof.
